Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the criminal complaint and the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 46-year old naturalized United States citizen born in Columbia.
2. Defendant has no known criminal history in the United States.
3. Defendant is accused of conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute 1 kilogram or more of heroin in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1), 841(b)(1), and 846. Defendant faces a potential penalty of up ten years to life in prison.
4. Defendant has few ties to the local community but has strong ties to Columbia. She only recently returned to the United States after living in Columbia for several years. Her mother and four siblings reside in Columbia. She has both a Colombian and a U.S. passport.
5. Defendant has not rebutted the statutory presumption that she is a flight risk.
6. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
